BG Grants License To Torrence

BELLE GLADE — This year's city election is a thing of the past, but the political past still is very much astir, especially so following the latest episode of l'affaire Torrence.

At last Wednesday's city commissioners' meeting, commissioners voted to table action to grant an alcoholic beverage license to Gus Torrence on SW 5th St., after hearing arguments that Torrence's alleged testimony under oath before the state and county grand jury that he had bribed public officials constituted proof that he was not of good moral character.

On Thursday, County Solicitor Charles Nugent wrote the city, stating he feared denial of the license on "the grounds" would be reprimand against an individual who had been granted county immunity, and that such action would hinder work of future grand juries in obtaining testimony.

Later Friday afternoon, Mayor (Continued On Page 8)

Cattlemen Meet In Canal Point

CANAL POINT — About 125 members of the Palm Beach County Cattlemen's Association met here Tuesday night for a panel discussion on latest methods in cattle raising.

President Roscoe Braddock of Belle Glade opened the meeting, which was moderated by George Wedgworth. Spakers included Sidney Croce of Clewiston; Dr. Forrest Harris, president of the Glades Experiment Station; Paul Thompson, West Palm Beach; John L. Evans, of Boca City; Ralph Kidder, Dr. Clement Kidder and Otto Larsen, Belle Glade.

Coca-Cola Buys Pahokee Site

PALM BEACH — Palm Beach Coca-Cola Bottling Company has purchased the Gamot Building on East Main Street in Pahokee and will build a modern, fully modern bottling plant to serve the Glades area, it was announced yesterday by David C. Timbrook, company manager.

Bottling operations in the new plant will begin in about six months, Timbrook said, and will employ about 15 persons, including the present personnel at the Pahokee Coca-Cola warehouse headed by Irving Malloy.

In a formal statement, Timbrook said, "Coca-Cola has been sold in the Glades area for many years and distributed from our warehouse in Pahokee. At this time we want to extend to the people of the Glades our appreciation for their fine patronage of our product and their confidence they have placed in our

SERVICES THIS AFTERNOON FOR FRANK SCHACKFORD

Services for Frank Walter Schackford, long-time resident of Canal Point, will be held this afternoon at the Fairchild Funeral Home in Orlando.

Mr. Schackford, who had been in poor health for some time, passed away Wednesday morning in Orlando. S. C. Greene, he and his wife, were visiting relatives. Although he had made his home in New Smyrna Beach recently, he had lived most of his life in the Canal Point area, where he was associated as a bookkeeper with several prominent business firms.

Besides his wife, Lucille, he is survived by his father, W. R. Schackford, Canal Point; three brothers, George, Paul, and Bill; and Bobbie of Pahokee; and one sister, Miss Irene Schackford of Chattanooga, Tenn. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery in Orlando.

Reasons Why School Funds Needed

PICTURED HERE are some of the reasons why the County Citizens Committee For Better Schools is seeking voter approval to sell school bonds, in the Nov. 6 election. The bond issue would correct these situations.

PAHOKEE high school gymnasium (upper left) is so small that cut-off-bound on basketball court is flush with wall. Couch Web is standing near padding under goal which protects protects athletes from injuries. Wall vibrates badly when hit.

CANAL POINT cafeteria (upper right) handles about 110 students daily who must eat in three shifts from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Kitchen, shown in background, is too small. Note the admonition "Keep Smiling" on the wall.

BELLE GLADE elementary school building has "settled," causing plaster to fall from walls of music room (left center). City has officially condemned this portion of the building.

BELLE GLADE elementary school students (right center) find the school cafeteria so over-crowded they must carry trays to gymnasium for their lunch. Cafeteria also serves in shifts, from 10:30 to 1:30.

LAKE SHORE NEGRO high school in Belle Glade is so over-crowded that students must use an athletic dressing room (at left) as a classroom. Classes are also held in a school bus.

Pahokee Scouts Will 'Huck Finn' Down Kissimmee River To Lake

PALM BEACH — If this community's crack Boy Scout Troop 23 has its way, the American tradition of boyhood fun in the true Tom Sawyer-Huck Finn manner will be continued in spite of the modern craze emphasis on jet planes, guided missiles and ghostly flying saucers.

For tonight the Pahokee Boy Scouts set out on their first leg of an honest-to-goodness raft excursion on the Kissimmee River.

As soon as school is out today, the Scouts will load some specially-made rafts on a truck and head north to the river. Scoutmaster Louis Mingo, Carver and "Admiral" Linderose, they'll travel up Highway 98 to the Kissimmee River bridge at Fort Basinger. There they'll camp for the night.

At daybreak tomorrow, they'll launch their rafts for the 45-mile trip down the Kissimmee to where the river empties into Lake Okeechobee. They don't expect to reach the lake until Sunday. When they do, they'll re-load the rafts on the truck and trailer and wheel the rest of the way home to Pahokee.

For the past several days the Scouts have been busy at Mims workshop building the seven rafts that will be used. Each raft consists of four empty 30-gallon fungicide drums on which has been built a wooden platform complete with steering and a canvas cover which is suspended over part of the raft to provide shade and shelter from rain. The drum floats were donated to the troop by W. K. Aldridge of McCurdy-Mitchell Inc., Pahokee.

Only those Scouts in the troop who are first class swimmers are eligible for this trip. There will be four boys to a raft, one of whom will be

At BG Prison Farm

BELLE GLADE — Fred Glasscock, about 56, a guard at the Glades State Prison Farm, died in his sleep about midnight on Tuesday according to Clifford Green, prison superintendent. A native of Birmingham, Ala., Glasscock is survived by two children. His death in his quarters on the farm was discovered by a man who was sent to awaken him for duty. Green said a doctor and the justice of the peace were summoned to investigate immediately. It was ascertained he died from a heart attack.

Awarded Contract

PALM BEACH — Engineer John Pickett, sr. of Pahokee has been awarded a contract by the Florida State Board of Public Instruction to conduct a topographic survey in the Okeechobee City vicinity for location of the new South Florida Industrial School for Boys.

Warns Youths On Restricted License

PALM BEACH — The police department of the city of Pahokee will shortly begin enforcing the state law requiring teenagers to have a restricted license to pilot automobiles only when a licensed adult driver is riding with them in the front seat, Mayor F. S. Parrish announced this week.

The mayor said police tightening of control of teenage drivers was due to the "increasing number of auto and teenage drivers on our streets and highways."

He said that Pahokee police would give "ample time" for all individuals concerned to become fully acquainted with state driving regulations, before "cracking down" hard.

Parrish issued a reminder that state law provides that drivers with restricted license from operating an automobile under any conditions one-half hour before sunrise or one-half hour after sunset. Furthermore, he said, restricted drivers must be accompanied in the front seat by a person 18 years or older who possesses a valid drivers license.

New School Bonds Topic At Monday Meetings

With the election on the county school bond issue only a month away, Glades Parent-Teacher Associations will have important meetings Monday night which will put the spotlight on Glades school needs.

County superintendent of Schools Howell Watkins is principal speaker at the Pahokee PTA meeting to be held at the high school auditorium Monday at 8 p. m., according to Marvin Thompson, program chairman.

Parents of Canal Point residents are invited to hear Supt. Watkins speak, whether or not they are PTA members, Thompson said.

Mrs. Elsworth Keen, president, will preside over the meeting and the introduction of the guest speaker will be made by Clyde A. Canipe, PTA principal.

The Belle Glade PTA also meets at its high school auditorium Monday at 8 to hear a presentation of the school bond issue.

Henry Earwood, county school board member from Belle Glade will moderate the panel, according to Mrs. C. E. Dooley, PTA president. Ten leading questions will be drawn by the panel, after which questions from the

BG Group Offers Courthouse Site

BELLE GLADE — A site for the proposed Glades sub-court house has been offered free this year by the Belle Glade Benevolent Association, Inc., an organization which owns property east of Highway 717.

A resolution was adopted yesterday addressed to City Manager C. E. Robinson and signed by Holger Lyngholm, president, and Ray M. Browne, secretary, the association offered the site for the courthouse on the condition that the county would build and pave the site.

The meeting was presided over by President Vance Denton, and a round-table series of discussions were held. Principal entertainment was rendered by Elmer Jones, who played "Sioux City Sue" on the piano.

The offer contained several conditions, among them that the city would deed the property to the county and build and pave several surrounding streets.

The Saga Of Canal Point: 'Vigilantes' Capture Fugitives

CANAL POINT — Community vigilante-type work that would have done a Wild West movie producer proud resulted in the capture of two fugitives from the law Tuesday morning.

The fugitives were identified as Gerald Hoeffert of Oklahoma City, and E. W. Cain of Nashville. After a short skirmish, the fugitives got away, but were captured by two Pahokee police officers.

Plan Jet Field Near P-W Plant

WEST PALM BEACH — County commissioners heard a progress report from County Engineer Steve Middleton at their regular Monday meeting, describing location of a proposed county jet airport south of the new Pratt & Whitney jet plant, north of Loxahatchee and west of SR 7.

Middleton told the board that plans for the new airport have already been discussed with Civil Aeronautics Authority in Miami, with the Airforce headquarters in Washington. Local business owners in the area where the new jet field would be built.

According to a commission press release, the field would serve a triple purpose when completed, including a runway completely with housing developments; commercial airlines and industry. Middleton said completion of the field would bring a great increase in industry associated with jet travel.

The commission instructed its chairman to pick a committee to work on acquiring property for the field and to develop final phased zoning laws which will be in effect in the fall.

Although it is understood that all land in the area of the already-picked site is privately owned, the commission has not officially retained any specific bids for sale of land for the airport.

In other action, the commission named T. W. Knight of Pahokee and Walter Hooker of Belle Glade as appraisers for the old county hospital in Belle Glade in preparation to calling for bids for sale of the property.

HOW DOES IT LOOK? Democratic leaders here are excited. They are trying to count enough states to show a win in November. One of the last states to be counted is Florida. The final report from the election caption given yesterday in Stevenson in Miami and Jacksonville, plus the stepped up Democratic campaign activity in Florida. They are pleased with the turn the campaign has taken. They are glad when Vice-President Nixon mouthed his new version of the old Republican theme of "two chickens" by promising "three to four" to the campaign.

Probably next to television, the next best thing for the Democrats would be for Nixon to stump the state. REPEAL OF THE 21ST AMENDMENT. Congress has passed the 21st Amendment. If any state wants to repeal it, the commission instructed its chairman to pick a committee to work on acquiring property for the field and to develop final phased zoning laws which will be in effect in the fall.

Although it is understood that all land in the area of the already-picked site is privately owned, the commission has not officially retained any specific bids for sale of land for the airport.

Between now and his trip to Florida, Smathers is due for a quick run into New England, then back to the Bell Telephone Laboratories' Central Office at Fort Myers. Congress has put up $12 million to begin work on the base, but the Air Force now says the "substructure" won't support the kind of field they want.

They say they are going to place it near Fort Myers — that they are making tests now to find a suitable spot for it. But, they got it from Holland and it's been six months ago. This week, we put the question directly to Air Force Secretary Quarles. When? Where? To date, no answer.

BY SCHATZI

Dear Schatzl:

The time is very nigh when, finally, I will stop needing you into column-writing, and will depart the Glades for life in coastal Palm Beach County.

Now I don't intend to get married, but because you're the type dog who would rise above any weeping, wailing, or gnashing of teeth. Unless, of course, it's where your next meal is concerned.

So, I have to say to you is that you are to continue to stay on your diet, or I will come back to haunt you even more frequently than I now plan.

Also, you might break out of the sack early enough some time to stroll down to Pahokee City Park and see how lovely the flowers are now that fall is upon us. Or stay out of the sack late enough some night to go to one of the Glades City restaurants and have dinner by golly democracy, at work at the level where it counts in keeping our nation strong.

Go take a look at Lake Okeechobee, you're bound, and remember you're the only bark-distance from the wonders of the U.S.

And along about mid-season, when you can hear the vegetables growing, hop into a plane and go over to produce-land — even you'll be impressed.

Trot along the main drag in any one of our Glades towns, Schatzl, and time how long it takes because of all the friendly people who stop to chat with you.

Sure, I'm leaving all this because when it comes to words vs. beans, I have to be where there are more of the former than the latter.

But that doesn't mean I won't miss it.

As I bet you very well know, anyhow.

Cheers, Schatzl

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kirschner, L.H.D.

In a recent issue of United Presbyterian Dr. H. B. Morris, former President of General College quotes Dr. Charles Clayton Morris, former editor of the Christian Century, as follows: "The churches cannot mold the mind even of their own children they have to do it in competition with a popular school system."

This is equivalent to saying that if religion is neglected or ignored in the public schools, in school week, it is difficult to impress the child with its importance. Perhaps unconsciously boys and girls comprehend that if it can be safely neglected for five days, it isn't very important even on the other two.

If it can be neglected and there is much reason to believe it, how are we to develop the integrity and character of our young people that are essential to good government, clean honorable business, and the perpetuation of the free institutions of our country? If we do not do this, we do a disservice to us. Freedom is possible only for men of conscience, consideration for others, honesty and uprightness. If these important qualities are not being developed, if religion is to be neglected in the very large area occupied by the schools, what is the child? What is the answer?

We would be pleased to hear from our readers on this subject.

BETA SIGMA PHI IN BG
PLANS YEAR PROGRAM

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority members heard the year's proposed program at their meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lois Kirchman. The plan as presented was adopted by the sorority. It includes sponsoring the annual PTA, the annual Valentine Sweetheart contest and participation in the national publicity contest for March, April and May.

Mrs. Sam Lovell presented the budget committee report which was adopted with minor changes. Mr. Ted Roman gave the members the new program books.

A proposed amendment to the by-laws concerning the non-payment of dues was discussed, and it was decided not to be voted upon at the last meeting in October.

Announcement was made that the Ritual of Jewels degree will be conferred on three members at the annual meeting.

The evening's program was on "Your Day, Socially". Mrs. Glen Abing spoke on the social arts, and the art of being a perfect hostess. Mrs. Lois Kirchman demonstrated the social settings for formal and informal dinners. A question and answer period followed.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. John Munroe and Mrs. John Abbott.

PAHOKEE BPW MEETS IN NEW CIVIC CENTER

PaHoakee BPW members held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the new PaHoakee Civic Center, a building which helped make possible through money raised by special club projects.

Mrs. Ethel Johnson, president, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Doris Carter, chairman of the civic center carnival for the school, gave a report on plans for the event. Plans were made for members to attend the state BPW board meeting in Tallahassee next week.

New members of the PaHoakee club will be at the home of Mrs. Alma W. Farrow and Miss Lucille Williams, on Oct. 16. Mrs. Doris Sasser was named chairman for a bazaar to be held on election day, Nov. 6th.

Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

THREE years ago the Committee on Credit Corporation had authority to borrow $6,750,000,000. It is now asking permission from Congress to increase its authority to borrow $12,000,000,000 to $14,000,000,000. Thus, it will have more than doubled in three years. The CCC now has $14,000,000 in crop holdings, loans and losses in disposal operations, subsidies and other costs.

This condition will not improve, but will steadily grow worse as long as farmers are paid to produce crops which are not wanted. The only effective remedy is to accelerate the process of shifting men and capital to more profitable industries. This flexibility is achieved under freedom. It is drastically diminished by any type of government intervention.

The agricultural problem is to some extent parallelled in other segments of our economy. The situation is so bad that until the people reverse the present trend and begin the process of reducing government intervention, there will be no improvement. The establishment of the free market will solve these problems, increase the production of more wanted goods, decrease the production of less wanted goods, restore balance and greatly enhance the welfare of our whole population.

LIVESTOCK MARKET TO HAVE ANNUAL MEETING

BELLE GLADE — Annual meeting of the Glades Livestock Market Association will be held at the market at 8 p.m. next Wednesday, according to Manager George C. Young. Election of directors will be held at that time, followed by serving of light refreshments.

A sale of registered Herefords will be held at the market today beginning at 1 p.m.

DR. AND MRS. ARCEAUX TO MOVE TO MISSISSIPPI

PAHOKEE — Dr. and Mrs. George Arcenaux have sold their home on East Main Street to George Terry, who operates the Terry-Heller Ranch on Connor's Highway east of Canal Point.

This weekend, Dr. and Mrs. Arcenaux will move to Pass-Christian, Miss., where he will continue his agricultural and technical agricultural consultant.

He plans to leave within two weeks to make a sugar industry survey in Indo-China, where he expects to be stationed for three or four months.

New Civic Center Building now graces the downtown Pahokee corner at the intersection of Main Street and Lake Avenue. Built with funds raised by civic clubs, the building houses the Chamber of Commerce. City library will be installed in it as soon as new equipment arrives.

BROWNIES ACCEPT 5 NEW MEMBERS, WANT ANOTHER

Five new girls have registered for membership in Pahokee Brownies, a group which has a total of 15. One member, Beverly Cook, moved to Lake Placid, leaving a vacancy in the troop. Mrs. E. K. Carver, leader, states that the first qualified girl from the third grade contacting her, will be accepted.

Mrs. Dorothy Folds has accepted the troop committee job, leaving the vacant left by Mrs. June Parikh, who is leaving the Carver, this year. Mrs. Folds will be assisted by Mrs. Ollavene Pierce and Mrs. Hugh Branch, who will continue on as troop committee members.

Mrs. Carver has announced that the first meeting of Brownies Troop 153 will be next Wednesday at her home from 2:30 to 3:45 p.m. and each Wednesday thereafter. Each girl must arrange her own way home after each meeting.

Pahokee Juniors

Whip BG, 26-6

BELLE GLADE — Pahokee junior high footballers continue their winning ways here Tuesday night, beating Belle Glade Juniors, 26-6.

Pahokee touchdowns were registered by Gerald Folds (2), O. E. Holt and Jim Maxwell.

Chances scored by Belle Glade on a yard from the goal line, also outstanding for Pahokee were Jim Alderman, Ronnie Jones, Thor Hutton and Henry Jones.

BG GRANTS

(Continued From Page 1) Z. T. Ingram called a special commission meeting for that night to discuss the Torrence matter, since Torrence's license had to expire on Sept. 30, and he would be unable to operate his business until he had granted a license by the city.

There was a possibility, expressed some of the commissioners, that the city would be liable to a law suit from the state if it had denied a license on the basis of his grand jury testimony.

Chairman Joe Blank, of the Citizens Committee for Better Schools, said that the commissioners and Walter Ashley and William Evans attended the Friday night meeting, along with City Manager C. E. Robinson, City Attorney Claude Jones and City Clerk Frank Anderson.

Commissioners Marvin Unwin and Jess Livingston were absent, reportedly responding to the news of the grand jury by saying they had already made plans to attend the Belle Glade high school football game at Lake Worth.

The special meeting was held, anyway, and by a unanimous vote Torrence was granted his alcohol beverage license.

SCOUTS —

(Continued From Page 1) selected captain in charge of the welfare of the group. Stops will be made along the way for meals and for the Saturday night camp. The raftsmen will escort the raftsmen the double distance traveled.

The Scouts will have the rare opportunity to work on bird and nature study merit badges and also will have a cookout. The fun will be a fishing contest. As an award for the largest edible fish caught on the trip the Scout making the catch and his "raftmates" will be given all the ice cream they can eat.

COCA-COLA —

"It is with pride that we bring this bottling plant that you people have been asking for. It is our desire that we can continue to grow with the progress of Glades cities."

Coca-Cola has had an amazing history since it was discovered by Dr. John Pemberton in Atlanta, Ga., in 1886. On Oct. 4, 1886, it was sold in its first year, all to soda fountains. In 1888 the first bottled Coke was put on the market so people could enjoy the "pause that refreshes" in the best possible environment, at home, at work, or at play.

Dr. Richard C. Lane, who has offices in the Gannett Building, will continue the same location. Pahokee Chamber of Commerce was located in the building until it moved last week to the new Civic Center.

SCHOOL BONDS —

Last chance for property-owners of Palm Beach County to register to vote, if they are not already listed, as freeholders, will be Saturday, Oct. 6 at 5 p.m. at County Court House in

REX ANDREWS OFF TO NAVY BOOT CAMP

Rex Andrews, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murris M. Andrews, East Main St., Pahokee, enlisted in the Navy for minority status until his birthday, Sept. 28, it was reported this week by Chief E. A. Werner of the West Palm Beach recruiting office.

Andrews, graduated from Pahokee high school last June. He and his brother, Earl, 19, and Jim Maxwell, 18, were also outstanding for Pahokee, while Holt and Jim Maxwell, 18, were awarded a football letter.

The new seaman recruit took advantage of his high school diploma and enlisted in the Navy's high school graduate program. This program will give him an opportunity to attend one of the 53 Navy schools. He was sent to the Naval training center, Great Lakes, Ill., for 10 weeks recruit training. When he finishes the training period, he will be granted 14 days leave, before reporting to a Navy train school for a course of instruction.

West Palm Beach.

At that time, county registration books on voters in the Nov. 6 election will be closed, and registered property-owners will be listed and given a chance to vote on the proposed $10,900,000 bond issue, according to Chairman Joe Blank, of the Citizens Committee for Better Schools.

Blank this week issued a last-minute reminder to all new home-owners and property-owners to recheck their status as "freeholders" so that they may express themselves on the proposed bond issue in the November election.

Absentee freeholders have until Nov. 1 to apply for ballots from the office of County Registrar DeWitt Upthegrove, West Palm Beach, and must return them by Nov. 5, Blank said.

Up to the freeholders of the county Nov. 6 is the entire decision as to whether school bonds may be issued in order to alleviate immediately the current financial difficulties existing in the county. Blank pointed out that fifty per cent plus one of all freeholders must vote on the issue, and more than half of those voting must approve the bond issue, for passage.

The Scouts will have the rare opportunity to work on bird and nature study merit badges and also will have a cookout. The fun will be a fishing contest. As an award for the largest edible fish caught on the trip the Scout making the catch and his "raftmates" will be given all the ice cream they can eat.

GLADES TEAMS ON COAST, DEVILS SEEK FIRST WIN

Glades football fans who want to see their favorite high school teams in action tonight will have to travel to the coast to do so. Belle Glade invades Dan McCarty high school in Ft. Pierce, Bell Glade at Central Catholic in Ft. Lauderdale, and Clewiston is at Seeger's high in Delray-Boynton Beach.

Pahokee's assignment may be the toughest, as the Ft. Pierce eleven has been named the best in the Suncoast Conference. Despite last week's stunning loss to Clewiston, 45-0, Coach Web Pell has not lost faith in his Blue Devils.

"These boys are the pluckiest outfit I've had at Pahokee," Pell says in hinting that local Glades fans will still see some outstanding football from his charge.

Individually, the Blue Devils are not disheartened over their loss to Clewiston, which Pell chalks off to an unfortunate set of circumstances including the fact Clewiston was psychologically "up" for the game.

Pell has driven the Blue Devils hard this week and instituted starting lineup changes. Earl Meredith and Ronnie Goodson will be at ends, Ronnie Hitchcock and Jim Tamm at tackles, Eugene Pierce and Charles Charles at guard and Harry Sheppard at center.

Coach Jim Maynor's Belle Glade team takes on an unknown quantity in a non-conference game at Ft. Lauderdale. Coach Maynor's team has won two games but reportedly has a competent running attack.

The Golden Rams are tied for the Suncoast lead by virtue of their 13-0 win over Lake Worth last week. Longtime star fullback halfback who was leading feature in the win, is a doubtful participant because of a leg injury, and Jeff Thomas will start in his place. Tackle John Prevatt, out last week with a bum knee, will be replaced tonight by 190-lb. Randy Way.

SAGA —

Quietly Bobby made his way to the coterie of man-hunters and gave the location of the hunter.

Approaching cautiously, Griffin fired a warning shot in the air. The flushed fugitives ran, but were caught by him along with his partner and Al Brewer, without further ado.

The cut-off states were taken to the county jail in West Palm Beach.

Lions Hear Talk About Suez Crisis

PAHOKEE — K. W. Rowan of West Palm Beach, coordinator of the Lions International Committee for seven area counties, was the principal speaker at the Lions Club luncheon Tuesday.

Rowan discussed the Suez Canal crisis and told how action there could affect retail gas prices in the U. S. He decried the trend of countries such as Egypt scrapping existing treaties to take over oil lands and service routes under the pretense of nationalism.

The speaker said 70 percent of imported oil was routed via the Suez Canal and had to be re-routed around the Cape of Good Hope, Charles Charles and Harry Sheppard at center.
